ArtsFest 2016 was a BIG Success!

Music, Food and a Variety of Arts, Educational and Commercial Vendors Filled the Grounds of the La Plata Town Hall

June 11, 2016, started as a bright, sunny (no rain in sight!) Saturday, as vendors streamed in to set up for the 24th ArtsFest, the Charles County Arts Alliance's free gift to the community. Opening at 11:00 am, the public was greeted with musical performances, six food vendors offering everything for lunch and dessert, and over 50 arts vendors and exhibitors.

Featured this year were two "time travelers" from the 17th century: Maryland's first Governor, Leonard Calvert and his trusted aide, Hugh Nash. Interpreters with the Historic St. Mary's City, the two gentlemen strolled among the crowds, entertaining everyone with their knowledge of life in colonial Maryland.

The Alliance was also pleased to host the Potomac Project's "Barrels by the Bay," a program funded in part by the Chesapeake Bay Trust, to increase awareness about water resources. Parents and children delighted in painting the large rain barrels that they were able to take home at no charge. Megan Rosenberger, President and Founder of Barrels by the Bay stated, "ArtsFest was a fantastic opportunity to kick-off the Barrels by the Bay Potomac Project in Charles County! Our goal is to educate as many residents as possible about the benefits of having a rain barrel. It was great to collaborate with the Charles County Arts Alliance to showcase how engaging combining art and the environment can be."

In the "Fishing for (Scholarship) Fundraiser," Vicki Marckel was the proud recipient of the "Queen Angel Fish," with Shannon Wang taking home "Sea Turtle." Funds raised go toward the $1000 scholarships awarded to eligible graduating high school seniors in Charles County who will pursue their studies toward a career in the arts.

And, plan now to attend the 25th ArtsFest, on Saturday, June 10, 2017!

June 11, 2016 is Proclaimed ArtsFest Day!

Show Highlights Artists with Disabilities

by Emily Ferren

On July 26, 1990, President George H.W. Bush signed into law the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) to ensure the civil rights of people with disabilities. This legislation established a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities. On July 26, 2016, the nation will remember the 26th anniversary of the signing of the ADA. The ADA has expanded opportunities for Americans with disabilities by reducing barriers and changing perceptions, and increasing full participation in community life. However, the full promise of the ADA will only be reached if we remain committed to continue our efforts to fully implement the ADA.

The Charles County Arts Alliance and the Charles County Commission on Individuals with Disabilities have collaborated to celebrate and recognize the progress that has been made by reaffirming the principles of equality and inclusion and recommitting our efforts to reach full ADA compliance

We are celebrating with a multi-media public exhibit to recognize local artists with disabilities. The show runs from July 7 to September 26, 2016, and includes works of art by: Jennifer Bell, Lacy Bullard, Mary Burdick, Sarah Cacciaglia, Alexander Chisley, Xavier Chisley, Nyle Coleman, Mary Jean Garner, Travis Gilbert, Doris Hagens, Rosalie Hawkins, Jackson Henry, Taren Johnson, James Robert Johnson, Jonathan Jones, Antonio Landers, Jody Loper, Doug Nevitt, Rudolph Nielsen, John Reese, Christopher Walker, Lindsay Wallace, Aaliyah Wells, Joanne White, Nolan Wilder, and artists from Charles County Freedom Landing.

On Tuesday, July 19, 2016, a "Meet the Artists" Public Reception will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 pm, at the Charles County Government Building to honor all the "artists without limits" participating in the summer show.

The Gallery is located adjacent to the front lobby in the Charles County Government Building, 200 W. Baltimore Street, La Plata, Maryland. Gallery Hours are: Monday - Friday, 8:00 am to 4:30 pm.

Maryland Welcome Center Unveils Original Painting of the Governor Harry W. Nice Memorial Bridge by Local Artist Vicki Marckel

On Tuesday, June 27, the official painting of the Governor Harry W. Nice Memorial Bridge by local artist Vicki Marckel was unveiled in a ceremony held at the Maryland Welcome Center, located at 12480 Crain Highway, Newburg, MD.

Vicki had approached Charles County Commissioner Ken Robinson to find out how she could help with the bridge project and the idea was born to create the painting "to help bring awareness to the fact that the Nice bridge belongs in a museum."

The painting was inspired by a photograph taken by Paula Schiller. Celine Graves allowed Vicki and her students from Henry E. Lackey High School to create their own art of the bridge at a paint-in held on the patio at Captain Billy's restaurant on April 30. The students' works are currently on display at the Charles County Government Building.

Vicki's painting was specifically sized to fit the display at the Welcome Center. The Center is open daily from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.
