Arts Alliance Opens New Winter Art Show at Waldorf West Library

Show Runs from January 11 to April 2, 2016

You are Invited!

"Meet the Artists" Public Reception
Saturday, January 16, 2016
2:00 to 4:00 pm

The Charles County Arts Alliance presents a new winter art exhibit at the Waldorf West Library, showcasing 30 artists and 50 works of art. This is the 13th Alliance-sponsored art exhibit at Waldorf West since the library opened in 2012. The artworks will be displayed in four separate gallery spaces which include the main conference room on the first floor, and two study rooms and wall space in the Fiction Section on the second floor.

On Saturday, January 16, the Arts Alliance will host a "Meet the Artists" Public Reception, from 2:00 to 4:00 pm, to honor all the artists participating in this show. The public is invited to this event, and will have a chance to meet the artists while viewing their works on display throughout the Library. Light refreshments will be served.

The show's theme was open to the artists and includes works from: Ibrahim Badru, Beverly Adams, Theresa Alo, Sar'där Aziz, Suzanne Cassidy, William Cassidy, Dorothy Crown, Andy Dixon, Cecelia Dunay, Gina Durgin, Donald Faust, Henry L. Font III, William Gibson, Roxana Gonzales, Debbie Grafton, Deborah Harkins, Lonnie Harkins, Gordon Johnson, Amelia Jones, Charles Jones, William Jones, Addison Likins, Susannah Lynch, Vicki Marckel, Ivette Marcucci, Julie Meisel, Nancy Owens, Lee Anne Shontere, Ernest Sinnes and Mary Sokol.

Most of the artworks are available for purchase; the Library's information desk will have copies of the price list.

The Library is located at 10405 O'Donnell Place, Waldorf, Maryland. Hours are: Monday-Thursday, 9:00 am to 8:00 pm; Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm; and Saturday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. For more information, contact the CCAA office at 301-392-5900, or info@charlescountyarts.org.

Dear Members and Friends,

May all of our CCAA Family

Charles County Arts Alliance Awards $750 to Westlake High School

Unique Educational Partnership Planned with Shakespeare Theatre Company in DC

On December 10, 2015, the Charles County Arts Alliance presented a check in the amount of $750 to Westlake High School to support a unique educational partnership between the Westlake English Department and the renowned Shakespeare Theatre Company in Washington, DC. The partnership was the brainstorm of English Teacher James Mascia.

Approximately 80 Westlake students will be reading the play 'Othello' by William Shakespeare, and attending workshops at Westlake presented by Shakespeare Theatre Company teaching artists. When the students have finished reading and analyzing the play, they will be tasked with researching and putting together a scene (including sets, costumes, directing, acting, etc.) to perform onstage, first at Westlake High School, and then at the Shakespeare Theatre Company.

Arts Alliance President Robert Rausch stated,

"We are proud to be supporting this very unique and innovative educational experience for Westlake High School students in Charles County. The students will not only delve into the world of Shakespeare and perform 'Othello' onstage at Westlake, but also have the rare and exciting opportunity to perform it onstage at the Shakespeare Theatre Company's own theater in Washington, DC."

Founded in 1986, the critically acclaimed, award-winning Shakespeare Theatre Company has dedicated itself to becoming the nation's premier classic theatre. Originally named the Shakespeare Theatre at the Folger Shakespeare Library, the Shakespeare Theatre Company's first production, 'Romeo and Juliet,' directed by Michael Kahn, opened in 1986. In 1992, it moved to its new performance space - the larger, more adaptable 451-seat Lansburgh Theatre located in Washington's Penn Quarter neighborhood. In 2007, it opened 774-seat Sidney Harman Hall, featuring a flexible stage that can accommodate theatre, dance, music and film. Together, the Lansburgh Theatre and Sidney Harman Hall comprise the Harman Center for the Arts, a dynamic hub of activity that showcases the Shakespeare Theatre Company as well as outstanding local performing arts groups and nationally-ranked theatrical organizations.

The mission of the Charles County Arts Alliance is to stimulate, promote, encourage and provide recognition of the arts and the creative spirit in Charles County. For more info on the Arts Alliance and becoming a member, contact the CCAA office at 301-392-5900, info@charlescountyarts.org, or www.charlescountyarts.org.

Arts Alliance Student Arts Scholarship Application Program is Now Open!

Deadline to Apply is March 4

Each year the Charles County Arts Alliance (CCAA) awards $1,000 scholarships to one outstanding graduating senior from each high school in Charles County to further his or her study of the arts (performing, visual or literary) at a four-year college or university.

Applications are available for downloading by going to the CCAA website at <http://charlescountyarts.org/program/scholarships>. Charles County Public School Seniors may also see their high schools' College and Career Advisors for a copy of the application.

The completed application and all required documentation must be received in the CCAA office by noon March 4, 2016. Mailing address is PO Box 697, White Plains, MD 20695; physical location is 10250 La Plata Road (Rt. 488), La Plata, MD 20646.

For more information, contact scholarship.ccaa@gmail.com or call the CCAA office at 301-392-5900, or info@charlescountyarts.org.

Tantallon Community Players Auditions for Ages 8 and Up

Dizney Dazzle:

A Musical Revue

Sunday, January 10, 2:00 - 6:00 pm

St. John's Episcopal Church

9801 Livingston Road, Fort Washington

Greg Kenney, Jr., is a Youth Representative on the Board of Directors for the Charles County Arts Alliance and multi-talented thespian who has performed with Tantallon Community Players, Port Tobacco Players, and College of Southern Maryland and other regional theaters. He suffered a life-threatening brain injury as a result of sudden cardiac death while running in a charity marathon race at Virginia Beach last September. Through many prayers and miracles, he is now recovering at the Kennedy Krieger Institute in Baltimore and soon will be transferred to a less intensive-care facility.

Greg, now 18, has many, many friends, and to show their support, TCP will perform Dizney Dazzle on March 5 and 6, with the proceeds benefiting the Kenney family.

Auditions for the performances will be held on January 10, from 2:00 to 6:00 pm, at St. John's Episcopal Church in Fort Washington. For the audition, prepare a selection of a Disney or Disney-type song (but not one from Frozen).

For more information, go to <http://www.tantallonplayers.org/#!/auditions/ccn4>.

Maryland Arts Day

Wednesday, February 17, 2016,

9:00 am - 2:00 pm

St. John's College

Mellon Hall, Francis Scott Key Auditorium

60 College Avenue, Annapolis, MD

Cost: $35 before February 5; $50 from February 6 - 12

Registration Includes Continental Breakfast, Lunch, and Parking

Go to http://mdarts.org/news_events/maryland-arts-day-2016/ to register.

Maryland Arts Day needs your participation! Here's your chance to hear the latest news and influence the lawmakers that control the funding for the Arts! Sure to be compelling, interactive and dynamic, come and be inspired by an array of speakers, and discuss with lawmakers the importance of a strong arts community to the economic and cultural vitality of Maryland.

Maryland Arts Day is the largest annual gathering of arts professionals in Maryland. With more than 400 participants representing every county in the state, this state-wide arts advocacy event connects artists, educators, administrators, volunteers and trustees with lawmakers from every legislative district in Maryland.

Keynote Speaker is Navasha Daya

Navasha Daya is a singer, songwriter, producer, performing arts curator, certified holistic wellness practitioner, and spiritual and cultural arts activist. Since childhood she has been inspired and encouraged to use her voice and talent to uplift others and inspire change. As a performing artist, Navasha has performed all over the globe sharing the stage with artists such as South African jazz trumpeter Hugh Masekela, Beninese singer Angelique Kidjo, Japanese pianist Hajime Yoshizawa, and American artists such as Joan Baez, India Arie, Michael Franti of Spearhead, and Roberta Flack just to name a few. In addition to her solo career as an indie-soul artist, Navasha has toured for the past two years as a guest artist, singing with the Grammy Award winning all female a capella group, "Sweet Honey In The Rock."

As an arts educator and cultural arts activist, Navasha has taught voice and music to elementary, middle, and high school aged children and youth for over 17 years, integrating character development, multiculturalism, and musicianship skills in her classes. Steadfast in her dedication to the upliftment of the community, in 2010 along with educator/musician/organizer, Fanon Hill and two youth mentees, Navasha co-founded the Youth Resiliency Institute (YRI), a social benefit organization that is dedicated to inspiring realization of the authentic self in children, youth, and young adults in Baltimore, Maryland. Navasha currently serves on the GBCA Programming Committee and is a member of the Baltimore Arts Education Coalition Steering Committee.

Calling All Fifth-Graders Across Maryland
Arbor Day Poster Contest is On!
Trees Are Terrific....in Cities and Towns!
Deadline to Submit is 4:00 pm, February 26

Last year's First Place Overall by Jenny Ha, Washington County

The Department of Natural Resources, in partnership with the Maryland Forest Conservancy District Boards, is sponsoring an Arbor Day poster contest, Trees Are Terrific....in Cities and Towns!

Fifth-grade students are encouraged to share their appreciation for Maryland's forests and trees through original works of art. The department will choose the top three posters to receive tree plantings at the winning artist's school: first place will win 15 trees; second place will receive 10 trees; and third place will get five.

All posters must be between 8.5- by 11-inches and 22- by 28-inches, and done in marker, crayon, paint pens, watercolor, ink, acrylic, regular or colored pencil, and/or tempera paint. They must be delivered or mailed to one of the state forest service offices no later than 4:00 pm, on February 26, 2016.

Go to http://dnr2.maryland.gov/forests/Pages/2016_ArborDayPosterContest.aspx to locate the mailing or delivery address for your county.

Posters will be judged on a county level and then submitted to the Maryland Urban and Community Forestry Committee to compete at the statewide level. Winners' teachers will be notified by March 25. Questions or comments may be directed to Anne Gilbert at 410-260-8510 or anne.gilbert@maryland.gov, or visit <http://news.maryland.gov/dnr/2015/12/21/fifth-graders-encouraged-to-show-appreciation-for-trees-through-art>.

Wildlife and Heritage Services
Black Bear and Migratory Game Bird
Stamp Contests
Deadline to Submit is April 15
Judging on April 22

Waterfowl and wildlife artists are invited to submit their original artwork for the 20th Annual Maryland Black Bear Conservation and 42nd Annual Migratory Game Bird stamp design contests.

The Black Bear Conservation Stamp contest is open to Maryland residents and non-residents. Each contestant may submit one entry for a non-refundable $10 entry fee. Proceeds from the sale of these stamps and other related products are used to compensate farmers who experience agricultural damage caused by black bears.

Last year's winner: Sunset Canvasbacks
by Jim Taylor of Towson, MD

The Migratory Game Bird Stamp contest is open to Maryland residents only. Each contestant may submit up to three entries ($15 for one entry; $20 for two; $30 for three). Proceeds from the sale of these stamps help fund migratory bird and waterfowl projects and research.

To enter either contest, artists must mail their design(s) with the required entry fee and forms to: Christopher Markin, Maryland Department of Natural Resources Wildlife & Heritage Service, 580 Taylor Ave., E-1, Annapolis, MD 21401. All entries must be the artist's original work, neither copied nor duplicated from any previously published paintings, drawings, prints or photographs by the contestant, or any other artist. For complete contest rules and entry forms, visit dnr.maryland.gov/wildlife, or contact Christopher Markin at Christopher.Markin@maryland.gov or 410-260-8584.
