CCAA's First Paint Party was a Big Success! Painters and Diners Help Support Scholarships

On January 9, 2017, 16 artists participated in our first Paint Party to raise awareness and funds for the CCAA Arts Scholarship Program. The theme was chosen by each artist, based on their own inspirational or motivational quote. Lorina Harris with ArtSmart Studio led the project and offered helpful guidance to the painters, who varied in age from young teens through adult. A wide variety of ideas and designs were depicted in acrylic paints with wonderful results!

With the percentage from Boston's dinner receipts, general donations from the restaurant's patrons and the Paint Party participants, a total of $770 was added to the Scholarship Fund.

Thanks go out to our paint partners, to our friends and family who joined us for dinner, and to Boston's Restaurant in Waldorf for making the evening an enjoyable and successful event!

Auditions on March 7 and 8, 7:00 pm for The Letter E Leaves the Alphabet

Play to be Presented at the Watermelon Festival and ArtsFest 2017

The Charles County Arts Alliance, in co-operation with the Life Journeys Writers Guild and Old Waldorf School Foundation, is sponsoring the production of a play adapted from the children's book, The Letter E Leaves the Alphabet. Written by Martha Lane, local Charles County author, the book tells the story of the letter E who runs away from home because he can't be the first letter in the alphabet. E has "one whole night and one whole day" to change his mind and return to the alphabet. If he does not make his decision in time, "every E in every word will fly away like a bird."

The story's themes are endless, teaching through the letter E's adventure, the fun of understanding vowels and consonants and rules for the road of life. These rules range from understanding how to deal with anger, family birth order, not being listened to, getting help in the right place with the right person, the desire and need to be first, forgiveness and loyalty, and, most importantly, it is the knowledge that every man, woman and child is an irreplaceable treasure with a wonderful mission and purpose no one else can accomplish.

Auditions will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, March 7 and 8, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm at the Old Waldorf School, 3074 Crain Highway, Waldorf, MD 20601. Please be prepared to recite any nursery rhyme from memory. Main rehearsals will be held every Wednesday from March 15 to May 24, 7:00 to 9:00 pm, at Old Waldorf School.

Roles are open, except for the Narrator and the Mother. The director and producer is Robert K. Rausch

Casting for the following roles:

The Letters E, A, B, C, and D (for ages 13 to 21 years)

The Father (age 40+ years)

The Letter Maker (age 40+ years)

Also needed: Stage Manager, Projection Technician and at least one stage hand

The play will be entered into the Watermelon Festival's competition to be held on Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4, 2017, at St. Mary's College; and also at ArtsFest, to be held on Saturday, June 10, at the La Plata Town Hall. Other performances may be scheduled at a later date.

Please contact the CCAA Office for more information and if you plan to audition. Phone: 301-392-5900, or email: info@charlescountyarts.org.

Thank you!

Three-Dimensional Art is Now On Display at Waldorf West Library

by Gale Kladitis, CCAA Vice President and Gallery Committee Chair

Thanks to Robert Rausch, President of the Charles County Arts Alliance, and Janet Salazar, Executive Director of the Charles County Public Library, the Waldorf West Library now has a cabinet to display three-dimensional art. This has been a long endeavor and was executed by Ashley Teagle, Manager of the Waldorf West Library, and Amy Jones, Charles County Arts Alliance Board of Directors member.

There are few avenues in Charles County to display three-dimensional art by our local artists. It is hoped this will be the beginning of other partnerships stepping forward with additional areas for three-dimensional art exhibits.

Dr. Theresa Alo's clay sculptures are currently on display through April 8, 2017, in the Waldorf West Library's cabinet. Please drop by and view this awesome collection. The Library is located at 10405 O'Donnell Place, Waldorf, MD.

Maryland State Arts Council Publishes the Fiscal Year 2016 Annual Report

The full report is available at http://www.msac.org/sites/default/files/files/MSAC_AnnualReport2016_ISSUU\(1\).pdf.pdf)

A LETTER FROM THE CHAIR AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Friends,

Reflecting upon Fiscal Year (FY) 2016, it is clear that the commitment of the Maryland State Arts Council to the statewide arts infrastructure — and the countless arts organizations, artists and communities that it serves to support — is ever stronger.

We would like to acknowledge and thank our Council Members, who as dedicated volunteers work throughout the year to support the arts statewide. Special thanks to Lora Bottinelli, Executive Director of the Ward Museum of Wildfowl Art, Margaret Footner, the Executive Director of the Creative Alliance at The Patterson and Susie Farr for their outstanding contributions as Council Members whose terms have now come to an end.

Across our diverse state, the arts are a vehicle for improving lives, for enhancing senses of place and togetherness, and for equipping Maryland's communities with the tools for innovation and resilience.

Under the valuable leadership of Governor Larry Hogan and First Lady Yumi Hogan, and with the enduring dedication to the arts sector by the Maryland General Assembly, the Arts Council's general fund appropriation for FY 2016 totaled $16.7 million. It is with much enthusiasm to report that the appropriation for FY 2017 will increase to a record level of $17.4 million, plus another $2 million infusion from the Special Fund for the Preservation of Cultural Arts. As Governor Hogan has noted, the arts are at work in Maryland, and the unwavering investment in our arts organizations, artists and communities continues to grow and expand.

Grounded in the Arts Council's strategic plan, Imagine Maryland, an enhanced investment in the Grants for Organizations program provides the foundation for further developing the statewide arts infrastructure through operating funds for non-profit arts organizations and programs. In FY 2016, $11,813,481 in operating grants was awarded to 276 arts organizations and programs from the Eastern Shore to Mountain Maryland. The arts infrastructure is also bolstered through the Community Arts Development program, which supports our statewide network of 24 local arts councils that, in turn, serve to increase diversity in and access to the arts for all Maryland citizens.

We are pleased to highlight the Arts Council's continued strengthening of Maryland Traditions, a national model for state folk and traditional arts programs. Through research, grants and public programming, Maryland Traditions, and its six regional partners, has been instrumental in safeguarding and promoting Maryland's rich cultural heritage for 15 years.

This annual report is a guide to how the Arts Council ensures that the arts sector continues to thrive. Through key alliances with communities, local arts councils, artists, arts advocates, arts service organizations, schools and other non-profit and for-profit businesses, we are confident that investment in the arts builds economic and cultural viability, laying a path for vibrant and sustainable communities of all sizes as we move forward into the future.
