Based on the book by the same name, the play "The Letter E leaves the Alphabet" by La Plata resident and author Martha Lane, debuts this Saturday, June 3, at 10:00 am, at St. Mary's College of Maryland. The production is sponsored by the Charles County Arts Alliance, Old Waldorf School Foundation, Vintage Treasures and Nused Furniture and Life Journeys Writer's Guild.

One of 15 entries in the Watermelon One Act Festival (WOAF) competition, "The Letter E Leaves the Alphabet" is the first children's play ever to be performed at the festival, which will be judged by: Lisa Gregory, M.S., Ph.D. the founder and producer of WOAF; Brent Englar, a playwright and the Baltimore Regional Representative for the Dramatists Guild of America; and Mark Rhoda, Ph.D. a visiting associate professor of theater, film and media studies at St. Mary's College of Maryland.

The "Letter E Leaves the Alphabet" is a story about the "Letter E" who runs away from home because he can't be the first letter in the alphabet. "E" has "one whole night and one whole day" to change his mind and return to the alphabet. If he does not make his decision in time, "every E in every word will fly away like a bird."

The story's themes are endless. Through the letter E's adventures, the fun of learning about vowels and consonants, and the rules for the road of life are made evident. These rules range from understanding how to deal with anger, family birth order, not being listened to, getting help in the right place with the right person, the desire and need to be first, forgiveness and loyalty, and, most importantly, it is the knowledge that every person is an irreplaceable treasure with a wonderful mission and purpose no one else can accomplish.

The author, Martha Lane, was born in Washington, D.C., in 1934, and has spent her adult life in the State of Maryland, enjoying three careers: A pastor's wife for 44 years; a mother of seven, with 32 grandchildren and great grandchildren; and as Director in the Before-and-After School Care Program and a substitute teacher for 21 years for Prince George's County.

The book, The Letter E Leaves the Alphabet, was published in March of 2012. Martha believes, "this was the window God opened following the death of my husband, Rev. John F. Lane, December 20, 2011."

WOAF is an excellent opportunity to showcase an original one-act play in a competitive environment and to receive instructional feedback that will help to further develop the play for future productions. Cash prizes totaling more than $1,000 will be given to the best overall script, audience choice, production/director, ensemble, and performers.

Tickets:

$12 per adjudication session ($10 students/seniors)

$20 for finals (includes food/beverages; $15 students/seniors)

$55 festival pass for both days ($50 students/seniors)

Each Saturday session will include performances of three to four plays and the adjudication period after the conclusion of the plays. Audience members with tickets may vote in the Saturday sessions for their favorite play. The data will be used to determine the "Wild Card" finalist - a play that received high audience votes but did not get selected by the judges for the finals.

Sunday finals will include performances from four to six finalists (including the "Wild Card") followed by a 30-minute break where food and beverages will be served as the judges determine the winners. Audience members with tickets may vote in the Sunday finals for their favorite play, which will determine the Audience Choice Award independent from the judges' selections.

A short awards ceremony will follow where winners of the best overall script (determined before the festival), production/director, ensemble, and performance awards along with the audience choice award will be presented.

Tickets can be purchased at the door with cash or check (no credit cards; show driver's license with check) up to 30 minutes before each adjudication session and the finals. No reservations are necessary.

Watermelon Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to support the theater arts in the local community, promote original works written by both students and adults, and provide a nurturing and educational environment for the development of theatrical and technical skills. ## In Memoriam Mary Ellen Wilmoth

Mary was a former member of the Charles County Arts Alliance and the originator of "Paint Brushes," the design that has become the ArtsFest logo. Mary will be greatly missed!

Below is her obituary from the Maryland Independent, May 17, 2017:

Mary Ellen Wilmoth, 81, passed peacefully on May 1, 2017 to be with her Lord and Savior. She was born in New Hamilton, PA, to Beryl and Martin Cressman. Mary Ellen was preceded in death by her parents; son-in-law, Leonard Redner; grandson, Joshua Wilmoth; and daughter, Amie Redner.

Mary Ellen was very active volunteering in her community; with Lutheran Brotherhood; Eastern Star; the Largo Landing House; the IIB-Washington D.C. Chapter, and at the Clark Center in La Plata, just to name a few.

Her love was truly helping others and in genealogy. She helped numerous friends learn about their families. Mary Ellen will be remembered as a caring, shining light in her community, for her relentless volunteerism, and for her service to her church.

Mary Ellen leaves behind a loving husband, Angus; eight children and their spouses; 16 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

The Wilmoth family would like to extend our gratitude to all of the staff at the UMD Charles Regional Medical Center and to the staff at the Fresenius Dialysis Center in Waldorf. Memorials may be made in Mary Ellen's name to the Peace Lutheran Church.
