Obligations and Instructions for Students Receiving a CCAA Scholarship:

Since the CCAA does not know if the current Covid-19 mitigation efforts will still be required, the post scholarship award obligations cannot yet be exactly confirmed. Students awarded the CCAA Scholarship will be required to attend and give a two- to three-minute presentation at the Charles County Arts Alliance Annual Membership Meeting which is usually held in early May at the Waldorf West Library or the meeting may be conducted through Zoom as was done last year.

If a Senior Awards Ceremony is held, a CCAA board member will attend and present an award certificate and a letter of final instructions.

These final instructions will require scholarship awardees to submit the following materials: a .JPG headshot and bio for publicity purposes, an official letter of acceptance from the college/university being attended in the fall semester, the incoming student's college ID number, and the college/university mailing address where the CCAA scholarship check should be sent. Failure to comply with the instructions by July 15, 2022 will forfeit the CCAA Scholarship.
