Want to Promote Your Event With Us?

Email the information to us at info@charlescountyarts.org by the third Friday of the month for the newsletter, and any Monday for the newflash. Please include “For Newflash” or “For Newsletter” in the subject line of your email.

The Charles County Arts Alliance is pleased to announce that it is the proud “parent” of one of the beautifully hand-carved wooden horses of the Southern Maryland Carousel Group! On May 3, 2014, we officially “adopted” Lord Baltimore, a very handsome steed depicting the Maryland State flag with emblems of the Calvert and Crossland families. The “adoption papers” were completed and first announced publicly during our CCAA Annual Membership Meeting and Reception held at the Waldorf West Library.

Arts Alliance President Robert Rausch presented a check to Burkey Boggs, President of the Southern Maryland Carousel Group, and noted that the total “adoption” cost of $6,000 would be paid over a three-year period. We were then surprised and delighted to learn that our very own Lord Baltimore had been selected to serve as the “lead horse” – the leader of the pack – for the planned carousel!

The Southern Maryland Carousel Group was founded in 2004 by Boggs and a group of highly skilled traditional woodcarvers in our region. Their nonprofit organization’s mission is to create a full-scale working reconstruction of the beloved wooden carousel that was located at the turn-of-the-century Marshall Hall Amusement Park on the Potomac River in Charles County. This amusement park was extremely popular across the entire Southern Maryland region and with Washington, DC residents before the park closed in the 1960’s.

The Southern Maryland Carousel Group to date has carved a total of 52 horses and other animals, along with a set of unique wooden plaques of “famous heads” of Charles County and Maryland historical figures. Once completed, the reconstructed carousel will be housed in an enclosed building that will also offer traditional woodcarving classes. The final site location for the reconstructed carousel is to be determined.

Feel free to stop by and check out Lord Baltimore the next time you are in La Plata! He is located in the atrium lobby of the new Courthouse. The Charles County Arts Alliance is extremely pleased to contribute funding to this very worthy project, to help ensure that this increasingly rare folk art of traditional woodcarving is passed on to future generations to appreciate and enjoy!

CCAA Board of Directors Holds Annual Summer Retreat at Solomons, Maryland

On Saturday, August 3, members of the CCAA Board and staff participated in an all day retreat at Solomons, Maryland. The purpose of the retreat was to review the challenges and successes of the past year and to plan for FY 2015.

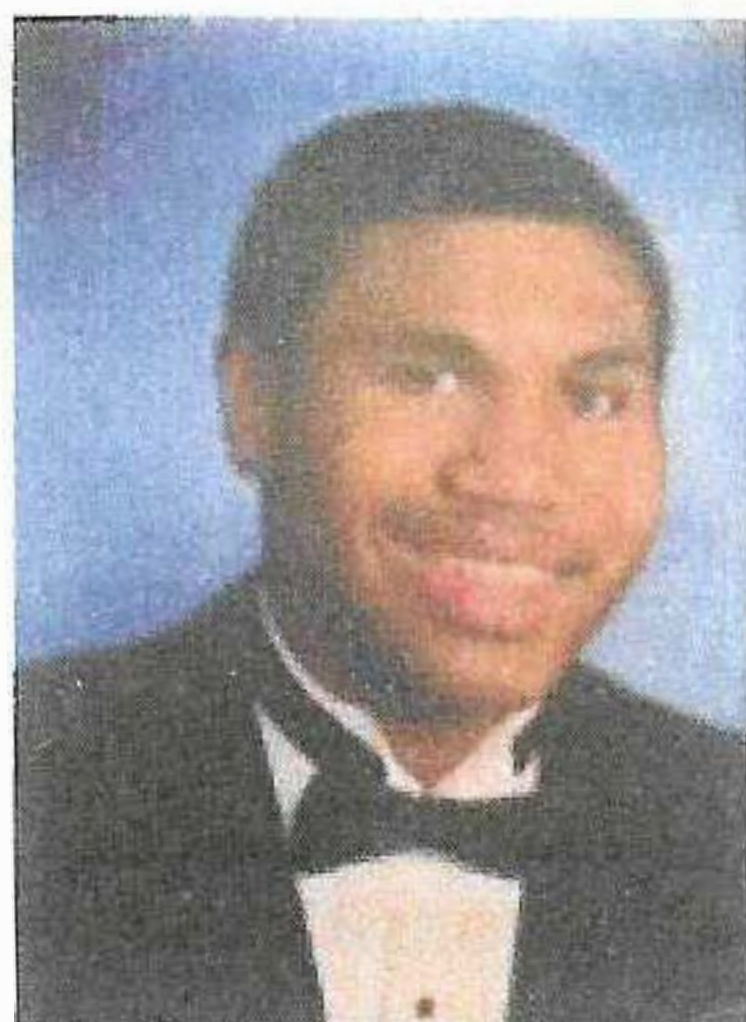

The Board reviewed and approved the new budget and calendar, evaluated the programs and activities of the previous year and held committee meetings for Events, Scholarships, ArtsFest and our five-day participation at the Charles County Fair. In addition, the Board was given a complete overview of the Gallery Committee by its Chair, Gale Kladitis; and, of the Outreach and Marketing Committee (including the new website) by its Chair, Diane Rausch.

The last hour of the day was devoted to "stuffing" 250 art boxes with art supplies that will be donated to the Children's County Children's Aid Society. These will be given to needy elementary students at the beginning of the next school year. Earlier in the day, the Board determined to order supplies for an additional 50 art boxes in order to match our last year's donation to this worthy cause. This is our eighth year of donating art boxes to the Children's Aid Society."

Carl McManus from Westlake High School maintained a Highest Honors level GPA on a weighted scale that included multiple Honors and Advanced Placement courses. In addition to his academic achievements, his artistic achievements included multiple theater and chorus performances. He appeared in the Westlake Theatre Company in the stage shows Shrek: The Musical, Snow Angel, Curtains, and Little Shop of Horrors. He was inducted into the International Thespian Society Troupe in January 2012, and served as the Board Historian. In addition to singing in Westlake's Men's Choir, Chamber Choir, and A Cappella Ensemble, he has performed for the past three years in All-County Chorus and Tri-County Chorus. Mr. McManus will continue his acting studies as a theater major at Frostburg University.

Tessa Norman from Maurice J. McDonough High School graduated with Honors level GPA on a weighted scale that included several rigorous Honors courses. She had an extensive list of acting roles in McDonough High School theater productions, including West Side Story, Grease, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Cinderella, and The Little Mermaid. She learned other aspects of the craft by working as stage manager for Peter Pan. During her senior year, she immersed herself in theater studies, including Advance Acting, Stage Production, and Multi-media 2 and added an Independent Study in Theater. According to her drama teacher, this student has called her stage and classroom leadership "invaluable." She was considered a "triple threat" in her acting, singing, and dancing. It is no surprise to learn that Ms. Norman will attend Frostburg State University to study as a Theatrical Studies Major.

Kenneth Waters, Jr. started at the College of Southern Maryland as an accounting and business student, but changed his focus when the bright lights of the theater beckoned to him. His decision to focus on theater cemented his future college and career plans. His newfound purpose was demonstrated in a cumulative level Honors GPA and appearances in CSM and local theater productions, including Willie Wonka and Little Shop of Horrors. He has built and managed stage sets, acted, and sung, all while working off campus in both full- and part-time jobs. Mr. Waters will continue his college education at North Carolina A&T to pursue his dream of teaching theater.

Arts Alliance Hosts "Meet the Artists" Public Reception Saturday, July 12 at the Waldorf West Library

Twenty-Seven Artists were Honored!

On Saturday, July 12, the Charles County Arts Alliance presented its third "Meet the Artists" Public Reception of 2014, at the Waldorf West Library, located at 10405 O'Donnell Place Waldorf, Maryland. The reception took place from 2:00 - 4:00 pm, in the main gallery located on the first floor. Light refreshments were served, and the event was free and open to the public.

The Charles County Arts Alliance manages four separate gallery spaces year-round on two floors of the Waldorf West Library, in partnership with the Charles County Public Library. The current exhibit is the seventh art show presented by the Arts Alliance since the Waldorf West Library opened in November 2012. The exhibit runs through September 30, 2014, and the theme is "Up, Up & Away!" The multimedia exhibition displays 40 works of art from 27 artists.

The artists recognized for their participation in the summer show were: Free Akins, Theresa Alo, Marianna Albrittain, Kelly Ashby, Cindi Barnhart, Patricia Biles, Cecelia Dunay, Betty Fuqua, Jan Garland, Josh Hettel, Gordon Johnson, Belinda Keller, Anne Machetto, Vicki Marckel, Leah Meyers, Constance Moore, Cliff Morgan, Jamie Oliver, Nancy Owens, Vicky Powers, Ayanna Proctor, Annabel Russell, Cynthia Snyder, Angela Steinhauser, Barbara Stepura, Pat Troiani, and Shannon Wang.

ARTS ALLIANCE "CALL FOR ARTISTS"

Deadline to Submit is September 1!

Theme is "Artists Choice!"

The Charles County Arts Alliance is now accepting submissions for the Fall Art Show, a multi-media public exhibit, to be held at the Waldorf West Library, 10405 O'Donnell Place, Waldorf, MD, from October 2 to December 30, 2014. The Library consists of four separate gallery spaces on two floors.

Local artists are invited to submit a maximum of two works of art on any subject, to the Charles County Arts Alliance for consideration (there is no submission fee). Artwork entries must be submitted electronically as low-resolution digital images (jpegs) attached to an email sent to waldorfwestgallery@gmail.com.

The email must include:

- Artist's name
- Artist's mailing address
- Artist's email address
- Artist's phone number
- Artist's biography (half-page max, in MS-Word)
- Artist's headshot (jpeg)
- Title of artwork
- Medium/materials used
- Size/dimensions
- Year created
- Price, if applicable

Artists who have previously shown in the gallery are invited to submit new work for consideration.

A "Meet the Artists" Public Reception will be held on Saturday, October 4, from 2:00 to 4:00 pm, at the Waldorf West Library's Main Gallery to honor all the artists participating in the fall show!

For more information on the Waldorf West Library Gallery, call the CCAA office at 301-392-5900 or email info@charlescountyarts.org.

Ms. Georgia's Musical Beginnings

Summer Music Camps

Amazing Animal Encounters through Music!

August 4-7; 9:30 am-12:30 pm

Don't miss this exploration of music inspired by animals! Not only will we focus daily on building essential music and keyboard skills through hilarious games, but create animal art in the style of great artists! Manipulate rhythms through rhythm games, participate in bell choirs or keyboard ensembles, and listen to music classics inspired by animals. Mix in pony rides (at a neighboring farm!), snacks, water balloons and musical carnival games and you have a winning combination!

Star Spangled America!

August 11-14; 2:00 - 5:00 pm

A visit from Rosalie of Riversdale, who will sweep us into the excitement of the 1812 War and the creation of the Star Spangled Banner, Basketball Rhythm, and Pop Art are just a few activities that await you at this camp where we will study the greats of American music and art! Finish the last day off with a truly American picnic with water games and hot dogs and it's a homerun for sure!

Each camp only $120 for 12 hours of instruction! Individually customized materials included; for all ages, beginner to intermediate levels; sibling discounts and extended care available.

Richard R. Clark Senior Center Book Discussion Group will meet at 1:00 pm on the first Thursday of every month. Anyone interested in joining the group can call 301-934-9001 or email Natasha Miller at nmiller@ccplonline.org for more information. The Center is located at 1210 Charles Street, La Plata, MD 20646.

August 7: The Count of Monte Cristo by Alexandre Dumas. Set against the turbulent years of the Napoleonic era, Alexandre Dumas's thrilling adventure story is one of the most widely read romantic novels of all time. In it the dashing young hero, Edmond Dantès, is betrayed by his enemies and thrown into a secret dungeon in the Chateau d'If--doomed to spend his life in a dank prison cell. The story of his long, intolerable years in captivity, his miraculous escape, and his carefully wrought revenge creates a dramatic tale of mystery and intrigue and paints a vision of France--a dazzling, dueling, exuberant France--that has become immortal.

La Plata Book Discussion Group meets at 7:00 pm on the second Thursday of every month. To join call 301-934-9001 or email sbland@ccplonline.org for more information. The Library is located at 2 Garrett Avenue, La Plata, MD 20646.

August 14: Defending Jacob by William Landay. Andy Barber has been a well-respected assistant district attorney in his suburban Massachusetts county for more than twenty years. But when his fourteen-year-old son, Jacob, is charged with the murder of a fellow student, the entire community is shattered. Award-winning author

William Landay has written the consummate novel of an embattled family in crisis--a suspenseful, character-driven mystery that is also a spellbinding tale of guilt, betrayal, and the terrifying speed at which our lives can spin out of control.

Waldorf West Summer Adult Book Club

Meets on Tuesdays, from 10:00 to 11:00 am. Pre-registration at www.ccplonline.org is required by the evening before the discussion. The Library is located at 10405 O'Donnell Place, Waldorf. For more information, call 301-645-1395.

August 19: A Short History of Nearly Everything by Bill Bryson. Taking as territory everything from the Big Bang to the rise of civilization, Bryson seeks to understand how we got from there being nothing at all to there being us. A Short History of Nearly Everything is the record of this quest, and it is a sometimes profound, sometimes funny, and always supremely clear and entertaining adventure in the realms of human knowledge, as only Bill Bryson can render it. Science has never been more involving or entertaining.

Indian Head Senior Center Book Discussion Group meets on the fourth Wednesday of every month from 11:00 am - 12:00 pm. Contact Lena Cox at 301-375-7375 or email lcox@ccplonline.org for more information. The Senior Center is located at 100 Cornwallis Square, Indian Head, MD 20640.

August 27: Necessary Lies by Diane Chamberlain. After losing her parents, fifteen-year-old Ivy Hart is left to care for her grandmother, older sister and nephew as tenants on a small tobacco farm. As she struggles with her grandmother's aging, her sister's mental illness and her own epilepsy, she realizes they might need more than she can give. Set in rural Grace County, North Carolina in a time of state-mandated sterilizations and racial tension, Necessary Lies tells the story of these two young women, seemingly worlds apart, but both haunted by tragedy. Jane and Ivy are thrown together and must ask themselves: how can you know what you believe is right, when everyone is telling you it's wrong?
