Call for Maryland Artists for Public Art Project

The question-and-answer meeting will be held on Feb. 15

Charles County Government is issuing a call for artists from the State of Maryland to apply to create a vibrant and welcoming outdoor place at Elite Gymnastics and Recreation Center (2745 Old Washington Road, Waldorf). This site is the first public art project in Waldorf.

The public art submission theme is recreation with an overall vision of the Waldorf Urban Redevelopment Corridor. The project should incorporate two- to three-dimensional sculpture, seating, walkways, and landscape design features. The space will be enjoyed by those that attend programs at the facility, their families, and the community. To learn more about the Downtown Waldorf Vision Plan, click here.

The deadline to apply is Friday, March 10, at 4:30 p.m. Interested artists can find additional information and the application at www.CharlesCountyMD.gov/call-for-artists. This project is supported in part by the Maryland State Arts Council www.MSAC.org.

A virtual meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 6 p.m. to answer potential applicants' questions. To register to attend the meeting, click here.

For more information or questions, contact Amy Blessinger at 301-645-0650 or BlessingA@CharlesCountyMD.gov. Citizens with special needs may contact the Maryland Relay Service at 711 or Relay Service TDD: 800-735-2258.

Paid Panelists Needed for Arts in Education Grant Program

This spring, MSAC is facilitating the public-led revision of the Arts in Education (AiE) program, which funds arts education projects in Maryland's schools and community settings.

This effort is based on a need to clarify the program's policies to provide equitable access to funds and ensure funding opportunities reach across the state of Maryland.

The next step of this process is to identify a panel of editors who will work with MSAC staff to develop the policy recommendations that will improve the public service of the AiE grant program.

All selected editors will be expected to:

1. Become familiar with the previous policies and procedures of the AiE grant program
2. Work with MSAC staff to revise AiE policies and procedures in alignment with public need and the goals of the current MSAC strategic plan
3. Be available to participate in at least two virtual meetings (see below dates) to discuss the above issues and develop procedure and policy recommendations for further consideration by MSAC staff, council, and Department of Commerce leadership:
 - Editor Meeting #1: March 7, 1 - 4 p.m.
 - Editor Meeting #2: March 23, 10 a.m. - 1 p.m.

PREFERENCES:

- Maryland residents with backgrounds in a variety of arts administration and cultural worker roles, or who are interested in learning how changes are considered and implemented within MSAC.
- Artists and artist organizations who are currently on the MSAC Teaching Artist Roster are highly encouraged to apply.
- Members of sites who have participated in previously AiE-funded projects are highly encouraged to apply.
- Internet access is required, and a Gmail account is recommended to participate.

HOW TO APPLY:

1. Click the Apply Now button below to log in or create a free account in SmartSimple. You must be registered as an "Independent Artist" to apply to be an editor.
2. Under Funding Opportunities, select "Public Call."
3. Select "Program Editor" from the first drop down option.
4. Select "Arts in Education Grant" as the Grant Program from the second drop down option.
5. Click "Save Draft" at the bottom to populate the application.
6. Complete the application and click "Submit."
7. Deadline: Friday, February 10, 2023

Editors will receive a minimum of $400 upon completion of assigned tasks, with the possibility of additional compensation if more than two virtual meetings are needed.

(Classic Comedy) This fast-paced romantic comedy is several interwoven plots of romance, mistaken identities and practical jokes. Separated from her twin brother Sebastian in a wreck, Viola disguises herself as a man, calls herself Cesario, and becomes a servant to the Duke Orsino. He sends her to woo the Countess Olivia on his behalf, but the Countess falls in love with Cesario. Meanwhile Olivia's uncle, Sir Toby Belch, with the help of his friends, plan to play a trick on Malvolio, Olivia's steward. When Sebastian turns up it causes even more confusion, chaos and comedy. PTP is taking a 1940's approach to this classic comedy of mayhem and romance!

The Sound of Music

February 10 - March 5, 2023

The final collaboration between Rodgers & Hammerstein was destined to become the world's most beloved musical. Featuring a trove of cherished songs, including "Climb Ev'ry Mountain," "My Favorite Things," "Do Re Mi," "Sixteen Going on Seventeen" and the title number, The Sound of Music won the hearts of audiences worldwide, earning five Tony Awards and five Oscars. The inspirational story, based on the memoir of Maria Augusta Trapp, follows an ebullient postulate who serves as governess to the seven children of the imperious Captain von Trapp, bringing music and joy to the household. But as the forces of Nazism take hold of Austria, Maria and the entire von Trapp family must make a moral decision.

LITERARY ARTS

February 2023 Notable Author:

Mary Jo Putney

Mary Jo Putney, an award winning, bestselling author, was born in upstate New York, earned degrees in English Literature and Industrial Design at Syracuse University, and eventually settled in Baltimore, Maryland. She likes to say, "I was born with a reading addiction, a condition for which there is no known cure." As proof of her addiction, Mary Jo read everything in sight. She especially loved action, adventure, romance, history, and happy endings, all of which are essential components of historical fiction.

Growing up, Mary Jo's fantasy was to be a writer (she always had stories in her head), but she never felt it was do-able until she got her first computer. She realized the tremendous advantage a computer gave a writer and it inspired her to write her first book, The Diabolical Baron (1987). She wove action, adventure, romance, history, and a happy ending into the novel and it was a success. This prompted her to become a full-time writer and leave her graphic design business. Her historical romances are known for main characters that come from difficult childhoods. As a result, her novels are known for psychological complexity and have included challenging problems like alcoholism, abuse, and death and dying "Part of the story arc is their struggle to heal and build a better life," explains Putney.

Her advice to hopeful authors is to "Read, read, read, then write, write, write. Since talent isn't uncommon, the defining characteristic of a successful writer is a burning drive to tell stories.”

The Charles County Chapter of the Maryland Writers Association assists new and established writers from the basics of the craft, editing, traditional and self-publication, marketing and many other aspects of writing. The Chapter coordinates book signings at various events throughout the year, and coordinated writing events to the Mattawoman Creek Art Center. The Chapter meets at Christ Church, 112 Charles Street, La Plata at 6 PM every third Wednesday of the month for a Critique Group, followed by a business meeting and writing prompts at 7 PM. Contact Lewis McIntyre at mcintyrel@verizon.net, to be put on distribution for meeting notices and events.

The Writer's Center's Bethesda building is awaiting your inspiration!

The front of TWC's Bethesda building, pictured above, is vibrant and eye-catching. Our unadorned back and side walls, however, could use a little love. (Actually, they could use a lot of love.) They're in a heavily-trafficked alley and visible from Wisconsin Avenue, a major thoroughfare. Let's make those walls sing!

We're currently in the planning process for commissioning an outdoor mural. Details on the mural's theme, timeline, and artist payments are available here.

The deadline for submitting qualifications is February 15, 2023. Interested parties should send a resume, samples of past outdoor mural projects, and references (or any questions) to mural@writer.org.

This project is supported in part by our wonderful partners at the Maryland State Arts Council (msac.org).

About the Charles County Arts Alliance, Inc.

The mission of the Charles County Arts Alliance (CCAA) is to stimulate, promote, encourage, and provide recognition of the arts and the creative spirit. Founded in 1987, the CCAA promotes ALL the arts in Charles County: music, visual art, drama, dance and literature.

The CCAA is the official arts council of Charles County and is recognized as such by the Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC), an agency of the Department of Business and Economic Development (DBED) of the State of Maryland. In this capacity, the CCAA serves as the "umbrella" organization for the arts community in Charles County. The CCAA promotes Charles County arts organizations and individuals, provides financial support to nonprofit organizations and the schools through its annual arts grant programs, sponsors the creation and presentation of new, diverse cultural activities and special events for the community, provides arts scholarships, and ensures the Charles County's under-served population, people with disabilities, residents with limited income, minorities, and senior citizens have access to the arts. The CCAA builds partnerships with local government, the business community and the educational community, in an effort to enhance the overall quality of life for the citizens of Charles County.
